STEAMROLLER SEEN IN CHICAGO

WOOD MANAGER DENOUNCES
COMMITTEE. BOSSES ABSENT.
NEW MEN IN CONTROL OF CONVENTION

By the Associated Press
CHICAGO, June 5.—Charges of Senator Moses of New Hampshire, that the republican national committee has used "steam roller" methods in deciding contests, were denied by several committeemen at today's committee session.

H. B. McCoy, national committeeman from the Philippines brought up the Moses charge and declaring he was a Wood supporter denounced Senator Moses' statement as absolutely unwarranted.

National Committeeman Higland of West Virginia, who also said he is for Wood, made similar statements. Neither Wood nor Col. W. C. Proctor, his campaign manager, support charges of Senator Moses of New Hampshire, that the national committee has used "steam roller" methods in its contest decisions, Mr. McCoy declares.

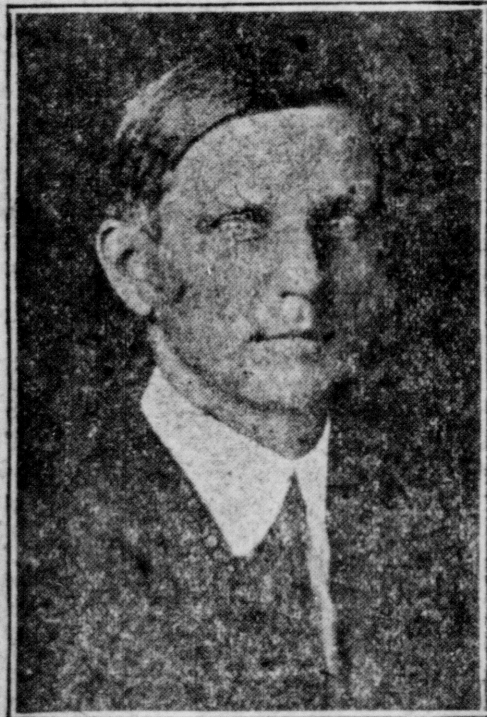

Chairman Hay defended by national committeeman McGraw, of Oklahoma, who said no one questioned Mr. Hays' fairness, honesty and integrity. National committeeman Kean, of New Jersey, interjected that "General Wood must be a great man because his friends can make so many mistakes."

That there has been no "sinister or personal motives in the committee's decisions" was asserted by national committeeman Stanley of Kansas, another Wood partisan.

Disposing of the remaining Georgia district contests, today the committee session closed.

FIFTY CARS WILL TRANSPORT FANS

LARGE CROWD EXPECTED TO ATTEND GAME—CARS WILL LEAVE AT 12—VICTORY
IS EXPECTED.

No less than fifty automobiles are expected to go with the Ada ball team to Allen tomorrow to the big baseball game to be played there in the afternoon.

The cars are expected to be at the Ada Motor company garage on East Main Street at 11:30 a. m. There they will be formed in procession and go in parade style to the city. The Ada band will accompany the team and a great time is looked for. All who will furnish cars are asked to communicate with Jim Coleman at the garage as soon as possible.

Tomorrow's game is the first of the season to be played away from home and the boys fully expect to cop it. Six games have been played up to this date, all victories for Ada and one of them from Allen, and of course the record must continue. The Allen men say they will get revenge tomorrow for the defeat of a couple of weeks ago and they will put up a hard fight.

ROARING LIONS ENTERTAIN GUESTS

EIGHTY-TWO PEOPLE SEATED
AT BANQUET—PROGRAM
PROVED RARE INTEL-LECTUAL TREAT.

The banquet and entertainment given in honor of the faculty of the summer normal by the Lions club of this city, at the Harris Hotel last evening, will stand out pre-eminently as one of the most elaborate social functions of the season.

Club members, their wives, sweethearts and guests, began to assemble in the parlors of the hotel about eight-thirty and at nine o'clock filed into the spacious dining room of the Harris where Manager McFarland had spread for them a feast fit for the gods. The tables were beautifully decorated with jasmies and the air was surcharged with the fragrance of their perfume.

The Smathers orchestra furnished the music and there was not a dull moment from the time Rev. C. V. Dunn delivered the invocation until the principal speaker of the evening had finished his oration.

Marvin Brown of the arrangement committee, in a humorous vein, introduced Judge Orel Busby as the toastmaster for the occasion and the judge demonstrated that he was all that the term implies when he made his speech of acceptance.

Supt. J. E. Hickman was called upon to deliver the address of welcome. His remarks were in the nature of a call for higher service and greater efficiency on the part of the teaching fraternity, and were listened to most intently throughout. He gave the teachers a most hearty welcome and assured them that the city was theirs while they are among us.

John T. Hefley of Henryetta responded to the welcome address with his characteristic wit, satire and sarcasm, and when he had finished everyone present was ready to dispute the oft-repeated saying that "nobody loves a fat man."

At this juncture Marvin Brown, on behalf of the mayor and the city commissioners who were unable to be present, presented to Mr. Hefley, and through him to the summer faculty, the key to the city, represented by a large wooden key bronzed with gold and decorated with the normal colors. It is understood that the immense key will be placed in the museum at the normal as a memento of the occasion.

Robert Wimbish, president of the Lions Club of Ada, responded to the toastmaster's question, "Why is a Lion?" In introducing Mr. Wimbish the toastmaster dealt with him so unmercifully that he couldn't resist getting back. Mr. Wimbish prefaced his speech on Lionism and what it stands for by saying that when Caesar wrote his "Gallic War" he made the statement that "All Gaul is divided into three parts." It was his notion, however, that if Caesar could be permitted to return to earth at this juncture he would find that all the gall of the world is concentrated in the office of the county judge of Pontotoc county.

President J. M. Gordon, retiring, answered, or attempted to answer, the question, "Why leave Ada to go to a country village like Tulsa?" The reporter is not willing to say that he answered the question, but he did open the eyes of the audience when he related several facts and figures about the city to which he is going in the near future. However, he paid Ada and her people many tributes of praise and it was visible that he was deeply affected when he dwelt upon the contemplated change in location.

"Ada and the Summer Normal" was the subject assigned to R. S. Newcomb. He dwelt upon the advantages of the school to the city and predicted that the Ada school was destined to become the greatest one of the kind in the state.

"Who located the Normal at Ada?" was the question which the toastmaster propounded to Luther Harrison. It is unnecessary to state that Harrison's speech, explaining this mooted question, was both humorous and instructive. He, too, couldn't resist the temptation to take a wallop at the toastmaster, but as the judge was still in bed when the News went to press this afternoon we refrain from detailing the incident.

Dr. Powell, the evangelist who is conducting the revival at the First Baptist church, appeared on the scene about ten o'clock and was slipped on the program as an "extra," and extra he was. The committee asked him to give them something funny, if he had anything in stock, and it developed that he was loaded to the brim. He is a story teller of unusual ability and for about fifteen minutes he kept the audience in uproarious laughter.

The last and principal speaker of the occasion, was Dr. Tolman, president of the Oklahoma Baptist university of Shawnee. While the hour was late, Dr. Tolman seemed at his best and his address was pronounced one of the best of the kind ever heard in the city. His subject was a Biblical one, being based on the men of the one, two and five talents, and from this theme he drew most forcibly many lessons valuable to any person with ambition. His address was listened to most intently throughout.

At 12:30 this morning, after voting the Lions most royal entertainers, the party dispersed, taking with them an invitation to attend a similar function one year hence.

ADA CITIZENS PROTEST PAVING

THINK PRICES ARE TOO HIGH
AND CONDITIONS TOO PRE-
CARIOUS AT THE PRES-ENT TIME

Do you know what it will cost to pave your property at the present price of labor and material?

Doubtless as a progressive citizen you signed a petition asking for the street adjoining your property to be paved. Are you aware that conditions have changed materially since you signed that petition? Do you know that at this time there is absolutely no market for municipal bonds of any kind and that the bond houses that have bought municipal bonds are now trying to sell them to counties and towns as an investment that they are willing to take a loss in order to unload these bonds? Do you realize that within thirty days there will be no farm or city loan companies making loans in the Southwest? Do you realize that although this stringency in the money market has affected some commodities and caused a declining price, there has been no decline in the price of material or labor used in paving?

According to the Ada News, Johnson & Benham, the civil engineers in the employ of our city, have stated that they will secure contractors who will accept the bonds in payment for the paving and carry this load, so that the bonds need not be offered in the open market. On its face this seems to be an attractive proposition, as it enables us to pave although paving bonds are unsalable. An analysis of this shows that the only bidder under such a system would be some one able to carry an investment of over one million dollars as this is the amount of paving contemplated. No contractor, engineer or financier can tell how long it will be necessary to carry this million dollar investment before the contractor could dispose of these paving bonds. Therefore, very naturally and sensibly the contractor will make his price for paving high enough to cover the estimated cost of carrying this indebtedness. Also it must be taken into consideration that there are but few contractors who could carry such a load. As a result competition would be virtually eliminated, and you would find yourselves borrowing money in the very highest market and buying material and labor in the highest market known for fifty years. Apparently we have struck the crest of prices and a decline may be expected in all lines as well as in clothing as shown by the advertisements of our merchants. It is probably not an exaggeration to say that in a normal money market with resulting competition and when prices have adjusted themselves paving will cost fifty per cent of what it will now.

Johnson & Benham give these figures showing what it will cost if the contract is let now. Take a corner 100 feet by 140 feet wide bor-

WILSON PEEVED, RAPS CONGRESS

SAYS POLITICAL EXPEDIENCY
HAS CONTROLLED ACTIONS;
REFUSES TO CONTINUE
THE SESSION.

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 5.—President Wilson, in a telegram today to officials of the railroad brotherhood, criticized congress for failing to take action with regard to the high cost of living, the conclusion of peace and important domestic legislation.

The telegram was in reply to a message asking the president to prevent the adjournment of congress today. The executive said that in the light of the record of the present congress "I have no reason whatever to hope that its continuance in session would result in constructive measures for the relief of economic conditions to which you call attention."

"It must be evident to all," the president said, "that the dominating motive which has actuated this congress is its political expediency rather than its lofty purposes to serve the public welfare." The president declared that he had accepted some of the legislation enacted by this congress because he despaired of anything better.

Committee Adjourns.

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 5.—After hearing Col. E. H. R. Green of Texas, son of the late Hetty Green, the senate committee investigating pre-convention political financing adjourned its session today until July 9th.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Chairman Kenyon after a consultation with members of the committee said witnesses still unheard would be called at that time. It was the decision of the committee, that no more work could be done until after the republican and democrat national conventions.

Col Green was called to tell what he knew about the selection of delegates from Texas to the republican national convention. He said he had contributed money to the "mixed" faction of black and white republicans in Texas, but denied he was working for General Wood or any other presidential candidate.

President Healthy Now.

By the Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, June 5.—Reports that President Wilson's condition has taken a turn for the worse were denied today by Dr. Francis X. Dercum, in this city. Dr. Dercum, who has frequently been called into consultation, said:

"They are silly rumors. When I left the president he was in such good condition I did not think it necessary for me to see him again. I have discontinued my regular visits to the president."

$550 RAISED IN CEMETERY DRIVE

FIVE COMMITTEES MAKE RE-PORT—OTHERS TO BE HEARD FROM —RESULTS VERY GRATIFYING.

The drive put on yesterday and the day before to get funds for the beautification of the Rosedale cemetery was quite successful.

All the soliciting committees have not yet made their final reports, but Mr. J. N. Criswell, head of the drive, says they know they will have $550 and probably more.

Five committees have been at work in the business section and a number of others in the residential section.

Profanity and Auto Violations Heard In Police Court

Police court opened wide its doors today and paid legal attention to a trio of citizens charged with various offenses against the peace and dignity of the state and municipality.

Lon Northcutt was arraigned before the mayor on a charge of disturbing the peace. It is alleged that he split some profanity in North Ada not far from the tabernacle last evening. He was assessed $10.75.

Frank Williams appeared before the court to answer the charge of running one large army truck thru Ada with muffer of aforesaid truck wide open, which driving produced considerable lack of harmony and much disorder. He paid $10.75.

Don Whitely was assessed $8.75 by hizzoner. Whitely was charged with violating the limit set for the speed of motor driven vehicles in the city limits.

County Jail Must Be Torn Down Says State Inspector

That the county jail in Ada is altogether disreputable and unsatisfactory and must be torn down forthwith is the opinion of E. M. Crow, the state inspector. He has just handed an order to County Judge Busby directing him to have the jail torn down immediately. The order also contemplates the immediate erection of a modern brick jail.

The order places Pontotoc County in something of a quandary. The present plan followed by all counties that are building jails is to build the jail in connection with the court house as a part of the court house. To build a jail separately from the court house puts the county to a lot of extra expense. But Pontotoc has no court house and a proposition to vote bonds for a court house and jail failed to carry at the special election held last winter. Just what will be done in the present quandary is problematical.

Let's Have a Landing Field

Hardly a day passes that aviators from Post Field and elsewhere do not land, or attempt to land, somewhere in Ada. This city has come to be one of the leading recruiting stations of the state and very often Ada is the destination of the fliers.

Furthermore the Ada ball team is preparing to match the aviators for a big game here July 4 and 5. The aviators, if they come, will bring a dozen or more planes. In fact nothing Ada could do for the expense and time involved would be better advertising than to have a good landing field at this place.

Lieutenant Brown who is here today stated to a News reporter this morning that unless a field was prepared here there would not be another plane land here from Post Field. The Barringer field is in no condition for landing and, besides, it is private property and we could not expect to use it without remuneration.

It happens that the Commercial Club of the city owns forty acres just north of the glass factory and foundry. If this was cleared and hangers erected it is said by those who know that it would make an ideal landing field, and it could be done at very little cost.

Can we afford to have it said that Ada is the only town in the state of anything near its size that has failed to provide this convenience and thereby get the benefit of the advertising, entertainment, etc., that results by reason of having the field.

Let the Commercial Club and Lions Club look into the virtue of this proposition and they will soon be convinced of the necessity of taking action.

MANY DEGREES AT OKLAHOMA

TOTAL TO BE CONFERRED IS 373. ADA PEOPLE INCLUDED. EXERCISES NEXT TUESDAY, JUNE 8th

NORMAN, June 5.—(Special)—Three hundred and seventy-three degrees or nearly two and one-half times as many degrees as will be granted by all the other institutions of higher education in Oklahoma will be granted Tuesday, June 8, by the university of Oklahoma, according to information given out this week by Dr. Roy Gittinger, dean of undergraduates and registrar at the state university.

Two hundred and sixty bachelors of arts degrees alone will be granted. Fifty-three bachelors of science, ten bachelors of music and bachelor of fine arts, fourteen pharmaceutical graduates, fifteen doctor of medicine, twenty-seven bachelor of laws, nine graduate nurses, eleven master of arts and four master of science.

The 1919 graduating class was by far the largest that had been sent out from the state university up until that time when 264 degrees were granted. This year's class will outnumber the 1919 class by 109. Over ninety percent of the men in the 1920 class are credited with military service, either the army, navy or marine corps or S. A. T. C. Many men are receiving degrees this year who would have under ordinary conditions been graduated in either 1917, 1918 or 1919. A number of service men returned in the spring of 1919 to complete work for a degree, but many other were not back from overseas in time to return to the university until last fall.

Only eleven master of arts degrees will be conferred this year as compared with seventeen in 1919, but many graduate students who enrolled in the university last fall were transferred to the faculty to help care for the unexpected increase in enrollment caused by the 1248 freshmen who entered in September. Many of these graduate students will complete their masters work in August at the close of the 1920 summer session.

Thirty-six graduates will receive, in addition to their B. A., a teachers life certificate; ten will receive certificates in public and private business; Three will receive certificates in social service, and eight Journalism certificates will be given this spring.

Following are some of the 373 graduates who live in the southern counties of Oklahoma:

Rutherford H. Brett, B. A., Ardmore; Ruth Ann Case, B. A., Ada; Samuel Cooke, B. A., certificate in public and private business, Antlers; Mary W. Crowder, B. A., teacher's life certificate, Purcell; Mildred Goodwin, B. A., Durant; Elgin Crossclose, B. A., Waurika; Bennie Heary, B. A., Tridmore; Smiley G. Harrin, B. A., certificate in public and private business, Purcell; Joseph C. Looney, B. A., Konawa; Florice Lyday, B. A., Durant; Clyde C. Marchant, B. SENATOR LUTHER HARRISON SPEAKS AT FIRST METHODIST

Senator Luther Harrison of Ada, one of the leading lawmakers of the upper house of the Oklahoma Legislature, filled the pulpit at the evening hour at the Methodist church last Sunday. Senator Harrison demonstrated again that he is a speaker of unusual force and ability. The address shows Senator Harrison to be a student of, as well as a believer in, the Bible. He spoke on the Ten commandments as the fundamental of all law, and the foundation upon which our government and our civilization rests. If we remove the foundation, then all our laws, our homes, our government will be like a house with the foundation removed, suspended in air and ready to fall in a mass of wreck and ruin. He denounced those who seek to undermine our government and institutions by replacing our moral laws with a new code of ethics.—Madill Record.

CHURCH CONFERENCE DOES MUCH GOOD

By the Associated Press

DES MOINES, Iowa, June 5.—The greatest conference of the Methodist Episcopal church ever held, is the characterization given the recent conference here by Bishop Joseph F. Berry, senior member of the board of bishops. It passed more far reaching legislation than any previous conference. Sessions lasted from May 1 to May 27.

A vigorous stand on many moral and international issues was taken in resolutions adopted. Chief among these were declarations against recognition of an Irish republic; in favor of relief to the destitute nations of Europe; in favor of the United States accepting a mandate over Armenia; against conditions of alleged vice and immorality on the border between the United States and Mexico; against race-track gambling and the dissemination of race-track gambling odds and bets through agencies of interstate commerce; and in favor of strict enforcement of the constitutional amendment establishing prohibition.

A fuller recognition of women in the church by permitting them to become local preachers was granted. The way was opened whereby women will probably, it was felt, be admitted to ordination as ministers of the church within a few years.

The matter of unification with the Methodist Episcopal church South, did not result in the union of the two churches, but will be continued, with the possibility, it was said, of a union being effected before the next general conference in 1924.

Other matters of importance acted upon included the famous amusement question affecting dancing and theater going, the decision being to make no change at present; a strong endorsement of and action looking toward systematic week-day religious education; plans for a constructive program of social and recreational life in every local church, and the formation of a council of the benevolent boards of the church, so that the work of these eight boards may be closely co-ordinated. Official recognition of the work of the hospitals and homes for aged and orphans was accorded and a board of hospitals and homes to sus-tain an advisory relation to all such institutions within the church was authorized.

The conference just closed was composed of 850 delegates from all parts of the world, and was the largest of the denomination ever held. Future conferences will be smaller. This was effected by a decision to cut in half the ratio of representation for all annual conferences.

Early in the session the office of missionary bishop was eliminated, and missionary bishops took their stand with general superintendents of the church. To meet the increased needs in foreign fields, six additional bishops were ordered to as many new residences abroad. These include two in Europe, two in India, one in China and one in Africa. Two negro bishops were elected. One of them will be located in the United States and the other in Africa.

At the request of R. A. Welch and Son of Red Oak, Oklahoma, I am enclosing herewith photograph of Council Hill Buster, Grand Champion Poland China Boar at the recent Texas State Fair. This boar is a son of Buster's Giant and a grandson of Giant Buster, and one of the greatest Poland China Boars alive.

Council Hill Buster was purchased in Mr. Welch's last Winter's sale by Parvin and Cunningham of Prosper, Texas, for $1,050.00 when he was but a pig. After searching all over the North for a real boar Mr. Welch finally came to Texas and paid Parvin and Cunningham $6,000.00 to get this boar back. He is one of the very best of the breed.

GO TO CHURCH TOMORROW

Tomorrow is Sunday and every citizen of Ada should break away from the habits of the average citizen and should attend services at one of the city's several churches. Then he ought to cultivate church attendance as a habit and work at such cultivation until he has acquired that habit for keeps.

Church attendance is the duty of every loyal member. It is also the duty of every citizen. The loyal Christian attends church because he enjoys the privilege and recognizes the duty. It would be difficult for such as he to stay away from church on Sunday morning. But there are a lot of good people not belonging to any church who ought to attend as regularly as the devoutest Christian of the city.

Church attendance really is a matter of good citizenship. Our system of laws is based on the Moral Law and Blackstone tells us that no municipal law has any force or sanction if it contravenes the Moral Law. This probably explains why millions of Americans can remain ignorant of the very existence of thousands of our statutes and still obey every one of them. Then our form of government has an ecclesiastical model: according to Hemphill the model of our government was formed by John Calvin at Geneva many years before our country won its political freedom. As great a historian as Bancroft has said that the independence of the colonies was won by the Presbyterian and Baptist.

The Moral Law undoubtedly could survive the destruction of our republic, but our republic could not survive the destruction of the Moral Law. To destroy the law of Moses would be equivalent to removing the foundation stones of the nation and leaving the superstructure suspended in mid air. As the life of the nation is dependent on the preservation of the Moral Law, it follows naturally that it is the part of good citizenship to lend a hand in keeping the Moral Law alive in our country. The best place to help in such a project is to attend the churches, where the Moral Law is preached and where it is taught and explained to the people.

We have a bunch of mighty good preachers here in Ada. They know how to preach and preach well. They have splendid choirs to furnish entertainment and congregations of genial people to welcome the worldling to their services. The citizen who attends divine services is well rewarded for the insignificant trouble and the citizen who stays at home is missing something well worth while. So good citizens ought to begin now and acquire the habit of being at the church every Sunday morning. Begin tomorrow. Then keep it up.

A dispatch from McAlester to the daily press Thursday made the rather startling assertion that the recent rains have been of great benefit to the crops in eastern and southeastern Oklahoma. That is what might be denominated real news. That crops in this section can be benefitted by water just now will surprise every citizen who knows a cabbage from a cockle burr. May be the fresh rain sent down by J. Pluvius will benefit the crops by washing the stagnant pools out of the corn rows or maybe it will drown the epidemic of crab grass now breaking out in the cotton fields. Or it may be that a two inch rain just now will remind people down the Kiamichi, where a ten inch shower recently fell, just what a decent, self-respecting rain really is. But as for benefitting the crops-----!

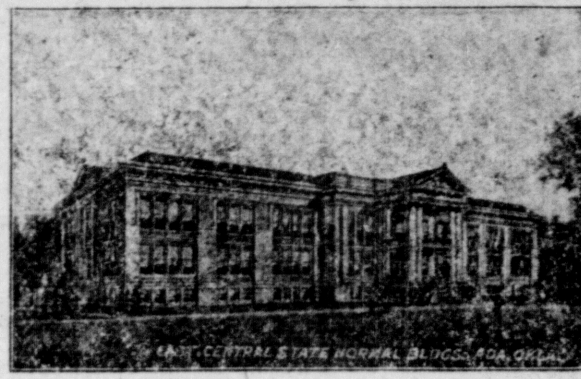

The News has just received a two column article from a state candidate announcing himself for office and setting forth in detail why he is running and why he should be elected. The article aforesaid is generously furnished us for publication and is naively marked "News Letter". The author of the article fails to state why county candidates should pay hard cash for political announcements and state candidates should be advertised free. He has a fine scheme to mooch advertising and no doubt would get away with it if every publisher in Oklahoma was a durned fool.

Four weeks ago we had the biggest burglary ever known in Ada and a big street carnival here at the time. Tuesday night we had a highway robbery while a circus was in town. Again, we ask, can't we get along pretty well without carnivals and circuses. The crowds that follow such affairs are undesirable citizens, to say the least.

Senator Gore may quote the congressional record from now till the last judgment and defend his loyalty and patriotism till the graves give up their dead, but will he please explain why it is that every known and suspected disloyalist in Oklahoma is actively supporting him.

While the senatorial investigating committee has not established who will get the nomination at Chicago, it has disclosed who paid for the nomination.

Normal and Campus

The "Old Man" is still a mystery, but we hope to have him present at assembly soon.

President Perkins left yesterday for Enid where he goes to attend to business matters.

The class in home planning has a full membership at present but there are several vacancies in the mechanical drawing class. Anyone wishing to take this work can see Mr. Norris in the manual training department.

Many of the students and teachers are away today visiting relatives in the neighboring cities. All will be present Monday morning filled with enthusiasm and everyone is trying to make this term the largest and most successful of any of previous years.

Miss Starr, the director of the normal chorus, is getting this organization ready for a concert to be held some time next week. There is a total of 207 members for this class and splendid programs will be given throughout the entire term.

The cafeteria has been very successful so far this term. The students are beginning to learn of the advantages of this feature and find that they can secure lunches at reasonable prices. This department is under the direction of Mrs. Eagan.

Fred Shrieber, director of the normal orchestra, is making a splendid showing with this aggregation of musicians this term. Mr. Shrieber is an able instructor and the school is proud to have his services as an instructor. The orchestra will probably appear in concert next week, the date to be announced later.

The book exchange has established regular hours of opening and everyone should become acquainted with these periods. For the benefit of those who are not informed as to the opening hours, we are giving this information:

6 a. m. to 7 a. m.
8 a. m. to 10 a. m.
12 a. m. to 1:30 p. m.
Quite a few new books and magazines are available now and students can get any of these at the above hours.

The manual training department under the supervision of Hugh Norris is doing some good work this term. Aside from instruction in mechanical drawing, Mr. Norris is doing some work for the merchants in Ada. Among the many things being built in this department are lawn swings, bookcases, music racks and beds, all of which show in the construction that they were made by skilled men who are studying this work. The shop is equipped with all modern machinery and is worthy of a visit from anyone who is interested in this work.

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Gordon will move to Tulsa next week. Dr. Gordon returned from that city yesterday and is very much enthused over his new place as president of the Henry Kendall college. Dr. Gordon stated this morning that one thing that is very noticeable in this school is the fact that many of the students are working their way thru school this year. "Quite a few of these boys are employed in the Tulsa postoffice and receive 60c per hour for their services. This enables them to have extra spending money and is a training for them in a business way," stated Dr. Gordon. Dr. Gordon is finishing his work in the office today and will turn the school over to Mr. Perkins.

The postoffice department of Ada has issued the following letter for the benefit of students who are not acquainted with mail activities in this city:

Notice to Normal Students.
In order that the postoffice employees may handle your mail and give you better service it is requested that you give the carrier an order to deliver your mail as soon as you enroll and be careful to give the correct address and house number. The carriers are not required to pick up a letter at a house unless he has mail to deliver to that particular place or house. We have erected a letter box at the corner in front of the normal building for your convenience and it is requested that you mail your letters in this box.

State Press Comment

Tulsa World: Just to show what Jake Hamon has failed to do for the republican club of Tulsa, the secretary is about to sell the furniture to pay his back salary.

Tulsa World: It is understood that the committee who officially notified Mr. Debs of his nomination only secured a permit to see him after being thoroughly searched.

Chickasha Express: Nobody is going to kick on abundant "showers" for the June brides but the weather man will please hold back a little with his sprinkler wagon till the wheat is harvested.

Ardmoreite: No late news from Mexico. The same old revolution is still in full force and effect without a new "savior" of the country having announced. Villa is doing business at the old stand. Nothing new in presidential assassinations.

Chickasha Express: The "Don't Worry" editor of the Oklahoma City Times is worrying because he can't eat corn on the cob without messing up his facial landscape. For our own part we wouldn't mind that if we could raise the price of the corn.

Ardmoreite: "What has become of the good old deacon who used to raise his hands in holy horror if a cuss word was uttered in his hearing on Sunday?" asks an exchange. The last time we saw him he was rooting for the home team at a Sunday baseball game.

Shawnee News: There was just one feature of the Memorial day parade which marred it for some of the participants. Group after group of onlookers was passed and only now and then did a person in the crowd remember to bare his head as the flag passed. To go soon forget is deplorable and it is to be hoped that when the Fourth of July comes with its attendant parades that no one will fail to do honor to the flag which has given him freedom.

Gore Blew In, and Turned Around, Blew Right Out Again

Senator T. P. Gore was in Stonewall a short while Saturday, enroute from Ada, where he spoke Saturday afternoon, to Coalgate where he was slated to speak Saturday night.

He was accompanied by two or three friends, who attempted to introduce the senator to Stonewall folks. The reception given him was somewhat "chilly" and many uncomplimentary remarks could be heard concerning the once distinguished senator.

Gore himself cannot mistake the sentiment in Pontotoc county. He cannot help but realize that the people will not accept his feeble excuses for his brazen conduct before during and since the war. He, at least, cannot mistake the feeling against him in Stonewall, where many citizens beat a hasty retreat to avoid shaking hands.—Stonewall News.

ESCAPE OF HILL MEXICAN MYSTERY

By the Associated Press

MEXICO CITY, May 22.—One of the exciting incidents preceding the revolt against President Carranza was the escape of General Benjamin Hill, chief lieutenant of General Alvaro Obregon, who fled from the capital city hidden in a pile of sacks in a milk wagon. General Hill vanished from the capital on the same night as did General Obregon April 13. The wagon in which Hill was hidden was stopped by the police in the suburbs of the capital because it did not carry a light. While the driver was bribing the policeman to pass the lightless vehicle, General Hill dropped out of the back of the wagon and hid in the shadow of a building until the policeman was mollified. Then the general crawled back into the wagon and continued his flight.

Mystery surrounding the fate of Robert Cedujo, to testify in whose trial General Obregon was summoned to the capital, furnished one of the tragic high lights of the Carranza evacuation. With General Arnulfo Gonzales, captured by Carranza government agents near Nueva Laredo on April 30, and the aged rebel General Gaudencio de la Llave, Cedujo was taken from the military prison of Sanitago Tlalco here the night of May 6 when the Carranza adherents fled. Whether he was taken on the Carranza trains the next day and escaped, or whether he was executed, together with the two others, remains a mystery. None of them have been located although several other generals, arrested prior to the evacuation, have returned to Mexico City.

Cedujo was arrested, with his staff and 150 followers, at Jalapa, on March 28, after he had surrendered, received amnesty, had been given the rank of general in the Mexican army and placed in command of a district near Jalapa, where previously he had led a revolt against the Carranza government for six years. He was charged with surrendering merely to secure arms and munitions with which to aid Felix Diaz.

The Carranza government charged that he had offered aid to Obregon, but Obregon in an interview given The Associated Press, branded the Cedujo charges as a scheme to bring him to Mexico City, involve him in charges of treason and block his campaign for the presidency.

The progress of Ygnacio Bonillas, formerly Mexican ambassador to the United States and Carranza's candidate for the presidency, from the Mexican embassy in Washington to a camp in the jungles of Vera Cruz and back to a prison in Mexico City is marked by stirring episodes. He is reported to have figured in a shooting affray which occurred on March 28 near Tlalpa, a suburb of Mexico City, which the papers supporting his candidacy intimated was an attempt to kidnap him.

The special train carrying him to Guadalajara was stopped near the city by a missing rail. He reached Guadalajara safely but the incident was the basis for numerous alarming reports. Then came his flight from Mexico City with Carranza, starting May 7 and ending in a dash from the beleaguered trains on May 14.

His good fortune saved him from death when Carranza was slain in the camp at Tlaxcalantonga and he was brought here to be imprisoned until the provisional president decided his fate.

When Capt. Felipe Sanchez Carranza was captured near Texcoco, a suburb of Mexico City, after he had been injured while making a forced landing in his big bombing plane, he shot himself. Captain Sanchez was a nephew of President Carranza. He attempted to reach Vera Cruz via the air route when Mexico City was evacuated on May 7th.

dered by two 80 foot streets each of which is to be paved 30 feet wide. This makes 527 square yards of paving chargeable against this property. The price given by Johnson & Benham is $5.25 per square yard making the total cost of construction $2766.75. To this must be added interest at seven (7) per cent as this is payable in ten annual installments. The first payment would therefore be approximately $470.00. There are hundreds of people who have homes on these streets which are about to be paved, and are being paid out by monthly payments on whom this paving expense would work an iniquitous hardship. In many instances widows with children are living off of the income of their property and they would be absolutely ruined by the paving expense and would be forced to sell at any price they could get. The time has passed during which a protest can be filed and the only avenue of escape is for the Commissioners of the City to refuse to let the contracts at this time. This does not mean that if conditions improve that the contract might not be let, for it could be proceeded with whenever it was propitious. The undersigned members of the Citizens Committee on Paving endorse the above and request the Commissioners to defer letting any paving contracts at present estimates.

FATHER FINED FOR PERMITTING CHILD TO DANCE

By News Special Service

TULSA, June 5.—The "shimmy" dance is not necessarily outlawed in Tulsa theaters, but when performed by a child less than three years old, it brings prosecution under the child labor laws of the state and as a consequence an information was filed yesterday against B. C. Nevins, owner of the Broadway theater, and Arthur McLeod, the child's father, in the court of Justice H. J. Gray. At their arraignment yesterday, both Nevins and McLeod entered pleas of guilty to violating the child labor law in allowing a girl under the age of 14 years to appear on the stage at a public performance, and were fined $10 and McLeod promised the court to keep his daughter off the stage during their stay in Tulsa.

Edgar M. Gambill, agent of the state labor board, after signing the complaint told the county attorney that the child's father had been arrested at Muskogee for this offense, but upon promise to take the child off the stage had been given his freedom. Coming immediately to Tulsa, according to Gambill the child was again placed on the stage of the local theater and allowed to perform the dance which the state labor authorities will attempt to stop. No law forbidding the dance being in the state statutes, a charge of violating the child labor laws was filed against the father and the theater manager.

The roses red upon my neighbor's vine
Are owned by him, but they are also mine;
His was the cost, and his the labor, too;
But mine as well as his the joy, their loveliness to view.

They bloom for me and are for me as fair
As for the man who gives them all his care.
Thus I am rich, because a good man grew
A rose-clad vine for all his neighbors' view.

Social Calendar

Baptist revival, Baptist church, all this week.

A Baptizing.
Through the courtesy of the First Baptist church the Oak Avenue Baptist church will hold a baptizing there Sunday at 3 p. m. Dr. Powell will lecture on his trip to the Holy Land, at the close of which the baptizing will take place. This is the second baptizing resulting from the Sparks meeting and if the 19 who are standing for baptism at present will make 40 in all. This is a rare opportunity to hear one who has seen the Jordan river and one who is able to tell what he has seen. Let every candidate for baptism be sure and be present.

Allow me to express thanks to the Criswell undertakers for the several dozen fans given to the meeting. Also I wish to express gratitude to the glass factory and the girls who do the cutting for the beautiful piece of cut glass given to Evangelist Sparks as an anniversary present. The piece was a beautiful fruit bowl, the finest in the shop.—A. P. Elliff, Pastor.

Honoring Miss Porter.
Mrs. R. A. Herndon, 126 W. 15th st., entertained Tuesday, June the First, with a luncheon honoring her niece, Miss Martha Porter, of Oklahoma City.

The table was centered with a filet runner flanked at the ends with white candles in crystal sticks tied with pink tulle. Kewpie brides marked the guest places, whose dainty trains of pink and white ribbons streamed upward to a brilliantly lighted electrolier which reflected a profusion of sweet peas around its mirrored base.

Clever telegrams announcing the coming marriage of Miss Porter, delivered by a Western Union messenger boy, were signed at table by each guest to the music of "A Day in June" on the Victrola, presided over by Lady Kate Thompson and Mrs. Byron Norrell.

For entertainment the guests beautified hand towels with fancy stitches for the bride-to-be, and a variety box was the gift of the hostess.

Mrs. P. S. Case and Mrs. John L. Case assisted Mrs. Herndon in serving the following guests: Martha Porter, Oklahoma City; Mrs. Oles Clouse, Shawnee; Beatrice Craig, Moss Wingo, Mrs. Paul Alderson, Fanny Wingo, Mildred Miller, Gladys Riddling, May Miller, and Mrs. Cora Case Porter of Enid, Oklahoma.

Burning the British Flag
The Irish sympathizers who burned a British flag in front of the United States treasury building at Washington exhibited a kind of leadership and indulged in a form of propaganda which are not calculated to help the Irish cause. If subjects of some foreign nation should burn an American flag, there would be a wave of resentment in the United States and there would no doubt be expressions of regret from the foreign government and a punishment of the guilty ones. Insulting the flag of a nation is regarded as insulting the nation itself. And it is all the more serious when it takes place in the capital city. Friendly nations are entitled to freedom from such insults.—The Oklahoman.

Small Grain Crop In Serious Condition Says State Official

Oklahoma City, June 2, 1920. Editor News:

Won't you join us in spreading information among the business men and farmers of your neighborhood regarding the serious condition this state is in relative to the care of the forthcoming small grain crop?

The railroads have announced that they will not be able to care for but a very small portion of the new crop when it first comes in. Last year they had 15,000 empty cars on track to care for the new grain. This year they will do well if they have 1,500.

At the present time, the country elevators in Oklahoma hold from 25 to 50 per cent of their capacity in last year's grains. They should be empty—but even if the railroads empty them in the next few days they can hold but about 20 per cent of our prospective crop.

Our problem is to induce and help the farmers of every neighborhood build storage and HOLD THEIR GRAIN under cover until it can be marketed. We must build at least 25,000 grain rooms to do this.

Failure in this campaign will lose the state of Oklahoma more wealth than we lost during the war. It will probably mean 25 cent bread, for grain that rots on the roadside makes the grain that is saved more valuable.

Failure will injure every man in the state. It will increase his cost of living—it will halt mercantile business—it will decrease bank deposits and endanger loans already made—it will halt work and effect labor.

There is no cause for this loss if we will all wake up and will all do our part. Won't you see to it that your paper contains news stories and editorials—pointing out to bankers, business men and farmers how the loss of a $100,000,000 crop will effect them—use your own language.

You will be doing the state of Oklahoma a real favor if you feature this subject for the next week. Please call on this committee in any way you deem best.

"Save the Grain Committee."

Albert Logsdon Dies
Albert Logsdon of this city died last Friday at the Sanitarium at Paris, Texas, his death resulting from an operation of appendicitis. He left this city apparently in splendid health and his death was quite a shock to his family and friends. The burial was held at Tira, Texas his old home town.

Albert Logsdon was a student at the East Central State Normal and has many friends among the students here that regret very much to hear of his death. Besides a host of friends he leaves a brother, Claud Logsdon and his mother, Mrs. Bettie Logsdon to mourn his loss.

Methodist Reception.
The members of the Methodist church entertained the faculty and students of the East Central state normal with a lawn reception Thursday night at the Methodist church on West 14th street.
The lawn was lighted with beautiful colored lights and decorated with flowers, also the church was opened to the guests. A total of 300 people were in attendance and many games were played, among them one of which was a name reading contest which proved very popular. Each guest was given a slip of paper and was instructed to write his name thereon, and pin the slip on his sleeve. The person finding the most names was awarded the prize, this being Miss Ophelia Gray and she was awarded a bottle of soda pop and was requested to drink this beverage before the entire crowd. This she did.
Several musical numbers, both vocal and instrumental, were given by Mesdames Ed and Tom Granger, Misses Eubanks and Gay.
Refreshments of punch was served and everyone present expressed themselves as having enjoyed this affair very much.

Freight Condition Better.
GALVESTON, June 5.—The first effect of Governor Hobby's effort to relieve the freight congestion came today when union switchmen employed by the Galveston dock company agreed to handle freight cars loaded and unloaded by either union or nonunion dock workers. Previously the switchmen would not handle freight assembled by non-union longshoremen.
Adjutant General Cope continued his effort to relieve the freight congestion due to the strike of union dock workers without the necessity of ordering state troops here.

Steam Roller Seen in Chicago

mittee unanimously seated D. C. Cole, of Marietta, a Wood delegate from the 7th district and dismissed the contest of a delegate said to favor Governor Lowden.
Douglas Wm. Harris of Athens, of the Lowden faction was seated from the 8th Georgia district in the absence of formal claims by a negro contestant pledged to Wood.
CHICAGO, June 5.—Disagreement between General Wood's manager over whether the republican national committee has been "steamrollered" has furnished the incident which was needed to wind up the republican convention preliminaries with a war-like finish.
Although Senator Moses, one of the general's managers, has denounced the decision of the committee, which has seated Lowden delegates over Wood contestants, as a "steam roller" procedure, General Wood himself has followed up with a personal statement expressing confidence in the fairness of Chairman Hays and is disclaiming any belief that the committeemen are permitting their personal preference to candidates to enter into the decisions which will determine the character of delegations. "Steamroller" talk has not appeared in the preliminary since the celebrated Taft-Roosevelt contest in 1912 and it adds to the noise and confusion in which the uninstructed delegates, so to speak, is having some difficulty in locating the band wagon.
Then there is the absence of that steady influence of the old time leaders, who have hitherto been able to guide the destinies of the convention.
Bosses, who speak with a note of authority, seem to be absent and although the incoming delegates are willing to be led, they don't find any considerable parties being personally conducted in any one direction.
If the program being talked of is carried out the leaders of the delegations from the larger states will have a conference and decide whether they will pool their votes and returning to the convention next morning cast them for the man about whom they have hopes of rallying enough support to command a majority, whether he be a "dark horse" or one of the candidates now in the field, no one can assume to say, because only the preliminary balloting can determine it.

By the Associated Press
In the tenth Georgia district, the committee seated the Lowden delegate, Robert C. Williams of Augusta. In the Ninth Georgian contest, involving the seating of Roscoe Pickett, the state chairman and leader of the Wood delegates, the national committee appointed a sub-committee to pass on the regularity of the credentials of the district delegates who elected both factions.
The Texas contest which followed the Georgia cases involving three votes, claimed by two sets of delegates sent from separate conventions, held at San Antonio, May 25th in one contest the whites predominated and negroes in the other. Both delegates were uninstructed.

LOUISVILLE MAN GAINS TWENTY-THREE POUNDS AND NEVER FELT BETTER

Five Years of Dyspepsia and Catarrh Had Weakened Him So He Could Work But Little.

COULD HARDLY GET BREATH LYING DOWN

McCrone Says Tanlac Soon Overcame His Troubles and He Now Feels Like A Brand New Man.

"If there was ever a time in my life when I felt better than I do now I don't remember it," said Michael McCrone, a well-known resident of 541 South Clay Street, Louisville, Ky.

"I have not only gotten rid of a case of stomach trouble and catarrh of the head that made my life miserable for five years, but I actually weigh twenty-three pounds more than I did the day I began taking Tanlac. I could not eat anything except very light food but what gas would form and keep me feeling sick at my stomach for hours. I had the worst sort of pains in my left side, and at night especially the catarrh in my head caused me so much trouble I could get but little rest. I could scarcely breathe living down and it was often almost day before I got any sleep at all. I lost thirty pounds in weight and had very little strength, and was in such a bad fix that I had to stay home from work for days at a time.

While looking over the paper one evening I ran across a testimonial for Tanlac that described my case so well that I made up my mind to try it. After I had finished my third bottle I was feeling like a brand-new man. My catarrh was gone, my head felt clear, my stomach stopped troubling me and I could lie down at night and sleep like a child. In fact just any thing I want and never feel a touch of indigestion. I have never felt better in my life than I do now, and when I recommend Tanlac to my friends it's easy for them to see the change that has taken place in my condition."

Tanlac is sold in Ada by Gwin & Mays Drug Co., in Stonewall by L. P. Carpenter, in Francis by Francis Drug Co., in Roff by Dowdy's Pharmacy, in Allen by McManis & Rose, and in Vanoss by Chas. L. Berger.
